

DM Closer — Brand Guide

The Digital Closer. A single source of truth for how the brand sounds, looks, and sells — so every post, DM, email, and page feels like the same person.

1. Brand at a glance

- Name: DM Closer — The Digital Closer
 - One-liner: I help course & digital-product creators turn conversations into customers.
 - Origin: Learned to close at the hardest door in sales — 1,000+ cold, face-to-face closes — then translated the same moves to the DMs.
 - The promise: You'll stop chasing leads and start calmly closing the ones you already have.

2. Positioning statement

For course & digital-product creators who can build and launch but freeze when it's time to sell, DM Closer is the closing system that turns DM conversations into customers — because most creators nail the marketing and fumble the close.

3. Who it's for

Course creators, template/digital-product sellers, coaches and service providers who get attention and launch — but lose the sale in the DMs. They don't need more leads; they need to convert the ones they have.

4. The wedge (what makes us different)

Everyone teaches build / launch / traffic — it's crowded. Closing is wide open.

Our unfair advantage is a real closing system forged at the door (agree & redirect, read the room, push-pull, assume the close) and translated to digital. *Lead with the close. It's the part nobody else teaches.

5. Brand voice & tone

Calm. Low. Direct. In control. We serve, we don't chase. Human to human — never a script reciting itself. We shoot straight from the hip.

Do:

- Speak plainly and calmly. A period where others use five exclamation points.
- Be honest, even when it's the uncomfortable truth.
- Teach one sharp move, not a wall of hype.

Don't:

- Be pushy, fake, or salesy.
- Make or coach income / earnings claims — ever. Teach the move, show the process, never the money.
- Borrow someone else's framework — frame it as how I close.

Sounds like: "Not sure it's even a fit yet — can I ask what you're working on?"

Not like: "🔥 DM me NOW to 10X your revenue this week!!! 🔥"

6. Words we use / avoid

Use	Avoid
close, conversation, decide, serve, calm, the move	hustle, grind, crush it, hack-the-algorithm hype
customers, buyers, students, fit	"make $X", income figures, earnings promises
straight, honest, human	pushy, salesy, manipulative tactics

7. Messaging pillars (rotate weekly)

Pillar	Covers
Offer	what digital product to sell, package, validate
Launch	launch runways, urgency without sleaze
Traffic / Hooks	reels, hooks, reach
The Close ★	DMs, objections, conversion — the signature
Story / Authority	the door → digital origin, behind the scenes

Front-load Offer/Launch/Traffic for reach; The Close is what makes us different.

8. Taglines & one-liners

- Build it. Launch it. Close it.
 - Most creators can market. Few can close.
 - The launch doesn't pay you — the close does.
 - From the hardest door in sales to your DMs.
 - Stop chasing leads. Start closing them.

9. Bio options

- You can build it. You can launch it. Can you close it? 🙌 DM-closing for creators · Door → Digital · Comment CLOSER 📌
 - Most creators can market. Few can close. Turning conversations into customers · 1,000+ closes · Free system ↓ comment CLOSER
 - Build it. Launch it. Close it. The Digital Closer · Comment CLOSER for the system 📌

10. The funnel (the engine)

Every piece of content ends the same way: a curiosity/value hook for reach → caption value → "Comment CLOSER" → an auto-DM (ManyChat / Instagram keyword reply) sends the DM closing system. The comment feeds the algorithm; the DM starts the sale.

The hook wins attention; the offer lives in the caption. Keep them separate.

11. Visual identity

Dark, warm, understated — gold on near-black. The look is the voice: calm, in control, a little luxe. No loud gradients, no clutter.

Colors

	#14110c	— Ink — primary background
	#C9A227	— Gold — primary accent (CTAs, highlights)
	#d8b552	— Gold Light — hover / secondary accent
	#f4efe4	— Cream — body text
	#1d1913	— Panel — cards / surfaces
	#a89c84	— Muted — labels, captions

Type

- Headlines: Cambria / Georgia — serif, calm and editorial.
- Labels & UI: Helvetica Neue / Arial — uppercase, wide letter-spacing.
- Body: Georgia serif.

Feel: gold accents used sparingly; lots of dark space; serif headlines; one clear action per screen.

12. How to use this guide (and why it matters)

- Before you post / write / hire: check it sounds like Section 5 and uses Section 6 words.
- Onboarding help (VA, editor, copywriter): hand them this — they'll match your voice without you re-explaining it every time.
- Every caption ends with the Section 10 funnel.
- Anything visual uses Section 11 colors + type.

Why a brand guide pays off:

- Consistency — one recognizable voice across reels, DMs, emails, and your Skool.
- Speed — no blank-page guessing; the hooks, pillars, and CTA are decided.
- Delegation — anyone you bring on sounds like you on day one.
- Trust → sales — a consistent brand feels credible, and credibility is what closes.
- Focus — the wedge (closing) keeps you distinct in a sea of generic marketing advice.
